A Culinary Heaven of Pure, Nourishing Goodness

Aashika Foods is a trusted manufacturer and exporter of premium-quality Makhana (Fox Nuts). With our own processing & manufacturing setup in Bihar, we ensure complete quality control from sourcing to packaging.

We supply high-grade raw and roasted Makhana PAN India and to global markets. Our strong understanding of the supply chain, commitment to consistency, and strict hygiene standards ensure every batch offers exceptional crunch, purity, and taste.

With a professional team, dedicated manufacturing oversight and streamlined logistics, we guarantee timely deliveries and reliable quality for both domestic and international buyers.

Objectives:

- To consistently deliver premium-grade Makhana through our in-house manufacturing and processing unit with a strong focus on quality, hygiene, and service.
- To provide a trusted supply channel across India and worldwide with ethically sourced, lab-tested, and securely packaged Makhana.

SOURCING

We source premium, farm-fresh Makhana (Foxnut) directly from our own farms and carefully managed contract farming partnerships. Our in-house processing ensures the highest quality standards, while our value addition techniques enhance its nutritional benefits and taste, delivering a superior product to our customers.

WHY Choose Aashika Foods?

Consistent Quality Assurance

Every batch undergoes strict sorting, cleaning, and grading procedures. We only purchased the seeds from trusted farmers and processors who follow enhanced quality standards ensuring all shipments meet both domestic and international expectations.

In-House Manufacturing Control

We operate through our dedicated manufacturing and setup in Bihar, giving us full control over quality, hygiene sourcing, and grading. This ensures uniform quality and stable supply for both domestic and export customers.

Strong Domestic Supply Network (Our Main Focus)

We supply premium Makhana to wholesalers, retailers, dry-fruit chains, FMCG companies, online brands, across India with reliable consistency and timely dispatches.

Efficient & Competitive Pricing

Our integrated sourcing and manufacturing model allows us to offer competitive pricing across the domestic market, while keeping our export rates stable and buyer-friendly.

WAREHOUSING AND PACKAGING

Our warehousing facilities in Bihar are strategically located near processing centers and transport networks, ensuring fast dispatch across India.

All facilities follow strict standards of cleanliness, fumigation, pest control, and safe product handling.

We pack Makhana using export-safe, moisture-resistant materials that retain freshness and protect the product during long transportation.

We also offer custom packaging based on client requirements (100g, 250g, 1kg)

GIVING BACK MISSION

Our mission is to empower local farmers and small processors in Bihar by bringing their produce to national and global markets. We work with ethical, improved methods of Makhana cultivation and processing.

By strengthening this value chain, we ensure that the benefits reach every participant—from farmer to end buyer.

THE VALUE:

We are committed to promoting Makhana as a respected and healthy superfood across India and worldwide. With responsible sourcing, quality-driven manufacturing, and transparent operations, we take pride in representing Makhana from the heart of Bihar.
